

In an exciting game between Sadler's and Superior of Almonte pitcher to Sadler's, Dave Thompson, stands waiting at home plate to catch Superior's Danny Vaughan out. Danny didn't quite make it. The game was the B finals on Monday.

Hotel on top by five points

Four games last week finished the regular schedule of the Almonte-Carleton Place Fastball League.

Almonte Hotel won both their games to carry a five point margin on top of the league. Last Tuesday, two unearned runs in the bottom of the seventh inning erased a 2-1 Legion lead and clinched the top spot for Hotel.

Veterans bill

A bill increasing benefits to Canadian veterans and their widows and children was tabled in the House of Commons July 9 by veterans affairs minister Daniel MacDonald.

The first of two major changes contained in the legislation will eventually clear the way for pensions to be paid to an additional 26,000 widows and 10,000 children.

At present, pensions are only paid to widows and dependent children of disability pensioners who were in receipt of pensions for disabilities which have been assessed at 48 per cent or more and to widows and children of veterans who died as a result of military service.

Mr. MacDonald said that the new amendments will lower the qualification ceiling over the next six and a half years until the dependent children of all veterans who were receiving pensions of five per cent or more will receive a monthly pension.

The first stage is scheduled for October 1 when those in the 18 per cent to 47 per cent category will become eligible. As a result, 1,500 widows will start receiving monthly pensions ranging from $185 to $208. Also, additional payments will be made in respect of 600 children of former disability pensioners.

Thereafter, the ceiling will be systematically lowered on April 1 of each of the next six years until 1986, by which time 26,000 widows and 10,000 children will be benefiting at an annual cost of $43.2 million.

These numbers include widows and children of former prisoners of war who receive identical treatment under the legislation.

Another major feature of the proposed legislation is that all future increases in the Old Age Security Pension and the Guaranteed Income Supplement will be automatically passed along to all veterans and widows receiving War Veterans Allowance regardless of age.

There are presently 25,000 single recipients under 65, including 15,000 widows, and 26,000 married recipients.

Their present monthly allowance is $365.62 for singles and $625.93 for married couples.

The bill provides for the first increase in the War Veterans Allowance basic rate since 1973.

support keeping Hotel off the score sheet until Fred Ryan's fourth inning run scoring double.

Other than leaving the bases loaded in the same inning, pitcher Mike Savard was effective in holding Legion down.

Thursday in Almonte, Steve Baird, Roy McGrath and Mike Savard powered Hotel to an 8-1 victory over Superior. Larry O'Keefe had a pair of hits for Superior.

Cost of the increases will be $5.2 million this year rising to $28.1 million in 1984-85.

MacDonald also announced that another item in the bill will enable more than 2,000 First World War veterans to become eligible for War Veterans Allowance.

At present, a First World War veteran had served in the United Kingdom for less than 365 days prior to November 12, 1918, he is not eligible for allowances. No such service restriction applies to veterans of the Second World War.

Beetles

Sap beetles are replacement ants as the number one pest this summer. They're such a nuisance they are sometimes called "penic beetles."

The tiny, hard-shelled beetles, about 6mm (1/4 in.) long, feature two yellow spots on each wing cover. They don't bite, so they are only a bother to picknickers.

However, they can cause damage to commercial and home garden crops, particularly raspberries.

To prevent succulent generations, make sure garbage cans, one of the beetles' favorite breeding grounds, are covered. Turn over to the next page.

Earl Hurds run-scoring single in the fifth inning broke a 2-2 tie and lifted Legion to a 3-2 win over Sadler's in a game which will see Hotel playing Superior and Legion hosting Sadler's.

Opposing pitchers Dave Thompson and John Drummond both threw excellent games, each allowing six hits. Dave also contributed a home run.

Playoffs will begin August 12 in Almonte. Division A will see Hotel playing Superior and Legion hosting Sadler's.

Division B will have Thompson and John Drummond both throw excellent games, each allowing six hits. Dave also contributed a home run.

Final standing are as follows:

Congratulations

Dear Ms. Almonte:
Well old girl you're 100 years old. You don't look it, with your new facelift and new main artery transplant.

People who are 100 years old only have memories. You've got 100 years or more to go.

So hang in there, your future looks good.

Thanks for letting me be a part of the family.

Your Adopted Son

Tennis tourney

Jim Murphy of Smiths Falls won the men's finals of the Open Invitational tournament hosted by the Almonte Tennis Club Sunday.

He took the title after defeating Almonte's Patrick Emon 7-6, 4-6, and 6-1.

In the same tournament, held in conjunction with the town's centennial festivities, Nancy Mills of Carleton Place won the ladies' final, after beating Almonte's Myra Johnson 6-2, 6-1.

The winner of the ladies consolation was Patricia Emon, who played off 8-5 against Mary Eileen Casey.

Almonte's Mel Ashby won the men's consolation over Bob Reid, also of Almonte.

Mixed Doubles

The club's mixed doubles tournament Saturday saw

Jan Peterson and Peter Johnson play Mary Eileen Casey and Bob Reid in the final. The Peterson-Johnson team won 6-2.

Peter Johnson and Bernie Emon won the men's mixed doubles final in the same tournament, defeating Danny Emon and Bruce Buffum for the title.

Program organizer and coordinator for both events was George Nightingale, who by several accounts "did a superb job."
