John Ross Harris

Maple Leaf Mills manager John Ross Harris of 361 St George Street, Almonte, died on Dec 6th, 1985 at the Ottawa Civic Hospital's Heart Institute. He was 59 years old.

Mr Harris was born at Port Colborne, Ontario, August 30, 1926, the son of the late Joseph R Harris and Marguerite Minor Harris.

Mr Harris married Elizabeth Baker on August 6, 1949 in Hamilton. Mrs Harris survives her husband.

Mr Harris was the manager of Maple Leaf Mills in Almonte, was educated at Port Colborne.

He lived in Almonte from 1972-77, in Trinidad from 1977-79, and in the Barbados from 1980-83. He returned to Almonte in 1983.

He was active during WW II with the Royal Canadian Navy and subsequently was a member of the Almonte branch of the Royal Canadian Legion. He was also a member of St Paul's Anglican Church in Almonte.

Mr Harris is survived by one brother, Timothy J Harris of St Catharines and a sister, Marion Murray of London, Ontario.

Also surviving is a son, Jeffrey Ross Harris, of Camrose, Alberta.

Prior to interment at Auld Kirk Cemetery, funeral service was held at St Paul's Anglican Church on Dec 9, 1985, at 2 pm. The Rev. Ross Harris, of Camrose, Alberta, conducted the service.

Palbearers were John Virgin, John Burdon, William Paterson, Robert Warren, Terry Mulloy, and Carmen Dennie.

Ethel James Nichols

Ethel James Nichols formerly of Almonte and who has been a guest at the Loomis House Nursing Home, Holyoke, Mass, USA for the past several years, died on Thursday morning, Dec 26, 1985 after a very long illness. She was 92, and the widow of George W Nichols.

Mrs Nichols was born in Almonte, the daughter of John R and Clarinda (Halpenney) James, on Feb 23, 1892. She was the fifth child of Mr and Mrs James who lived all their married life on the James Homestead, on the sixth line of Ramsay Township.

At 18 years of age she elected to go to the United States and entered the Holyoke Hospital School of Nursing, graduating as a Registered Nurse with the class of 1913.

She was a member of Saint

Paul's Episcopal Church and a past president of the women's auxiliary. She was a dedicated and devout worker in the church while health permitted. She was well known in the Holyoke area for her oil paintings, her originally designed and executed hooked rugs, and her gardening. During World War II she was the recipient of the first prize for Holyoke's best Victory Garden.

She is survived by a daughter, Eleanor, Mrs George P Alderman, of Holyoke, two grandchildren, Jeffrey Alderman of New York City, and Wendy, Mrs Jeffrey Cohen of Medfield, Mass., four great grandchildren and two sisters — Mrs Ellen York, of Garden City, NY and Florence, Mrs Alton J Henry, of East Greenville, Pa.

The funeral took place on Saturday at 11 am, Dec 28, from St Paul's Church. Burial was in the family plot in the village cemetery in South Hadley Falls, Mass.

Horace Maxwell Smith

Horace (Holly) Maxwell Smith, a Fairview Manor resident, formerly of Pakenham, died on Dec 10th, 1985 at Almonte General Hospital. Mr Smith was 90 years old.

He was the son of the late JM (Max) Smith and Margaret Russell Smith, born on May 22nd, 1985 in Pakenham.

Mr Smith was predeceased by one brother, Ira; and two sisters, Pearl (Mrs Stanley Groves) and Edith (Mrs George Needham).

He married Violet Clarke on Nov 28th, 1917 in Arnprior, and the couple farmed in Pakenham Township. Mrs Smith survives her husband.

Mr Smith is also survived by a daughter, Marion (Mrs Delbert Miller) of RR 1 Arnprior; and grandsons Dwight Miller of RR 1 Arnprior and Robert Miller of RR 3 Arnprior.

Surviving great grandsons are Kyle, Damian, Jeffery, Scott, and Brian.

Prior to interment at Pakenham Union Cemetery, funeral service was held at the Boyce Funeral Home and Chapel on Dec 12th, 1985. Rev. Mead Baldwin presided at the service.

Palbearers were Robert Miller, Dwight Miller, Art Levi, Stuart McCann, Joe Ryan, and Hugh Lunney.

Honorary palbearers were Harvey Giles, Ken Needham, Russell Needham, Alphonse Herrick, Ewart Miller and John Nugent.
