GOOD NEWS FILE

Lions get toy donations

The Lions Club of Almonte got a dose of Christmas cheer thanks to the generosity of a Carleton Place business.

The Lions received toys from TYCO Electronics Canada December 20. They were distributed by the club along with their annual Christmas baskets, which are handed out to those in need in the community.

Sarah Rodger and Vieng Bounsouk of TYCO, presented the toys to Lion Ken Hawkins, chair of the Youth Committee and Food Baskets.

The youngsters at the Almonte Co-operative Nursery School wave an enthusiastic goodbye to Santa Claus after the friendly visitor from the north made an enjoyable pre-Christmas stop on December 22 at the school on Elgin Street, in the basement of Almonte United Church.

By Theresa Fritz
Gazette editor

Thousands flocked to the Philip K. Wood Gallery in Almonte to get a glimpse of Canadian political history and, in turn, they raised thousands of dollars for a worthy cause.

A huge total of 5,130 people came to see the photographic exhibit 'Trudeau' Photos by Rod MacIvor at the Mill Street gallery owned by Philip Wood. The show opened November 18 and was originally scheduled to run for two weeks. Due to its overwhelming success, the show was extended until Dec. 10.

The 50 photographs on exhibit, were all taken by Ottawa Citizen photographer and Almonte resident Rod MacIvor. As a photo journalist he covered the late former Prime Minister in the 1970s and early 1980s. Trudeau died last fall.

Through the sale of framed prints and posters, $10,000 was raised for the Prostate Cancer Research Fund at the Ottawa-Carleton Regional Cancer Centre.

While many people from all walks of life passed through the gallery, one significant individual made three separate visits. Margaret Trudeau Kemper, Mr. Trudeau's former wife, took an emotional private tour of the show the day before it officially opened. She returned two weeks later with a crew from TVO's 'Studio 2' where an interview was conducted with herself and MacIvor. This segment is to air this month. Her final visit came Dec. 14, just before the exhibit was closed. She returned to the gallery privately, accompanied by Senator Joyce Fairburn.

The photo exhibit is now on tour to other areas and once again, any funds raised will go directly to prostate cancer research, something Mr. Trudeau suffered with at the time of his death in September.

What you should demand from your dentist:

1. HE SHOULD LISTEN TO YOU -

When you first meet the Doctor, it's a good sign if you get to do most of the talking. After all, who knows you better than... you! Your needs and concerns are VERY important to us!

2. VERY COMFORTABLE CARE -

Nowadays your dental care can be surprisingly comfortable, with warmed anesthetic, topical anesthetic, and more; you will be amazed at how easy dental care can be!

3. REASONABLE AND FAIR COST -

We know how valuable your time and money are to you, that's why our goals are: on-time appointments, and a fair fee for our care, skill, and judgement.

When you need a dentist, you want one who really does take the time to be gentle and careful.

In this day and age of fast food and quickie marts, we've chosen instead to keep our practice just the opposite: Calm, Relaxed and incredibly Comfortable.

Give us a call, our number is 257-3131. You will be very pleasantly surprised and very happy.
